

is a joint venture of the Formula of Agreement denominations in the Capital area (PCUSA, ELCA, UCC, and RCA)

Two members of Albany Presbytery sit on the Board. We provide the Capital Region with quality, relevant, effective theological education.

We provide a means to offer pastors and laity the opportunity to strengthen and enhance their spiritual life, continue learning, discover new resources and visions for ministry, develop technological skills to assist in ministry, and to establish and/or maintain networks of colleagues which provide an invaluable resource to pastoral ministers.

We do this through planning, organizing and facilitating educational courses of varying topics, styles and formats. We contract with highly qualified instructors, basing our courses on local needs and interests, ensuring a relevant and invigorating experience.

Since Fall 2001, CRTC has offered theological courses and events for both laity and clergy with over 1000 occurrences of participation (some more than once), drawing from 18 denominations.

We are grateful to the congregations in Albany Presbytery who continue to support this ministry by giving to Presbytery mission.

Enhancing the ministerial gifts of laity and clergy for the benefit of individuals, congregations, communions, and the wider Body of Christ

is a joint venture of the Formula of Agreement denominations in the Capital area (PCUSA, ELCA, UCC, and RCA)

Two members of Albany Presbytery sit on the Board. We provide the Capital Region with quality, relevant, effective theological education.

We provide a means to offer pastors and laity the opportunity to strengthen and enhance their spiritual life, continue learning, discover new resources and visions for ministry, develop technological skills to assist in ministry, and to establish and/or maintain networks of colleagues which provide an invaluable resource to pastoral ministers.

We do this through planning, organizing and facilitating educational courses of varying topics, styles and formats. We contract with highly qualified instructors, basing our courses on local needs and interests, ensuring a relevant and invigorating experience.

Since Fall 2001, CRTC has offered theological courses and events for both laity and clergy with over 1000 occurrences of participation (some more than once), drawing from 18 denominations.

We are grateful to the congregations in Albany Presbytery who continue to support this ministry by giving to Presbytery mission.

Enhancing the ministerial gifts of laity and clergy for the benefit of individuals, congregations, communions, and the wider Body of Christ